Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 7th August 1863.

No. 39. Read the following letter from G. R. SHARPE, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 27th July 1863, No. 80.

1. With reference to the Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Judicial Department, dated 30th ultimo, I am directed by the Judges of the High Court to submit their recommendation for bringing into operation the provisions of Sections IV and V (Madras), Act IV of 1863, in the Zillah of Nundial.

2. The Civil Judge states that "there is no Principal Sudder Ameen in his District and that its requirements do not render it necessary at present to invest the Civil Judge with jurisdiction under Act 42 of 1860."

3. It appears therefore that the sole reason which can be assigned for not investing the Civil Judge with special jurisdiction is that there will be few or no cases wherein he will be called upon to exercise it. If this is so, the labors of the Civil Judge will not be increased, and no inconvenience can result from giving the jurisdiction, while the interests of justice may suffer from withholding it.

4. In these circumstances the High Court recommend that the Civil Judge be invested with special jurisdiction within the limits of the town of Kurnool.

No. 40. ORDER THEREON, 7th August 1863, No. 1,267.

Under Sections IV and V of (Madras) Act IV, 1863, the Civil Judge of Nundial is invested with special jurisdiction within the limits of the town of Kurnool.

2. This order will be notified in the Fort Saint George and Kurnool District Gazettes.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
