2. Kesava Row it appears has obtained a certificate* from the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Service Examinations to the effect that he will not be required to pass under the present rules to secure the appointment of Pleader, District Moonsiff or Sub-Magistrate. This certificate was given, as explained in the second paragraph recorded above, on the understanding that Kesava Row had already passed an examination under the rules published by the late Sudder Adalut and had obtained a diploma of fitness to fill the post of District Moonsiff or Pleader.

The Civil Paymaster will be informed accordingly, and will take steps to procure from the Registrar of High Court (Appellate side) a list of men who have already obtained diplomas in view to the carrying into effect the opinion above expressed.
