MEMORANDUM.

Major W. G. Owen, 11th Regiment N. I., returned from sick Certificate to Europe in September 1862, joined the Government Agency at Vizagapatam 14th October 1862.

2. His pay and allowances as Major at Rupees 759-3-0 per month, the date of his landing at Madras to the 13th of October 1862, and pay proper as such at Rupees 182-10-0 per month, from 14th October 1862 to 30th April 1863, have been duly adjusted in the Military Department.

3. On Major Owen, who is certified to have been under Medical treatment from 13th of May, date of relinquishing his Civil duties to 11th June 1863, obtaining leave for that period, pay and allowances as Major, at Rupees 759-3-0, will be admitted by this Department.

4. No objection exists to Major Owen drawing his pay and full Regimental allowances from 12th June to 21st of July 1863, for which period he duly obtained leave on Medical Certificate.

5. Pay proper from 1st to 12th May and from 22nd of July 1863, the date he re-assumed charge of Civil duties, is also admissible in this Department; but no abstracts for the period in question have been yet received in this office.

6. The question whether difference between pay and allowances of a Regimental Major, and the amount of what has already been drawn by him in the Civil and Military Department, is admissible to him for the period of his employment on the Staff in the Civil Department is under reference to Government.

7. The difference was however drawn from 14th October 1862 to 31st March 1863, in July 1863, and retrenched by this office, amounting to Rupees 1,120-14-4, this Department being precluded from admitting more than the pay proper of his rank.
