Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
17th September 1863.

No. 136. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. K. WORSTER, Barrack Master, Presidency; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th September 1863, No. 653.

I have the honor to request that sanction may be obtained for my drawing the amount of the accompanying Supplementary Estimate* for repairs to furniture in the High Court, which are "required to be executed prior to the opening of the Court on the 20th October next."

* Rupees 250.

2. The Registrar states, that as repairs of this nature are not an annual current expense, they were not included in the requisition estimate for 1863-64, although a Circular from this Department, under date the 9th September 1862, (receipt acknowledged in his office) called for a list of the probable repairs for the year 1863-64.

3. Mr. Ritchie adds, by desire of the Chief Justice, that unless the repairs are completed prior to the date abovementioned (the termination of the vacation) "both the Judges and the Public will suffer considerable inconvenience."

No. 137. ORDER THEREON, 17th September 1863, No. 1,500.

An Order on the Bank of Madras for Rupees (250) two hundred and fifty will be issued in favor of the Barrack Master.

2. The Deputy Auditor and Accountant General will indicate the source from which the amount to be expended can be defrayed.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
