Book and Adjustment Department.

Your letter No. 3,191, dated 23rd instant.

The Civil Judge should forward to you a Bill for transmission to this Office duly audited by the Civil Paymaster for Rupees 4,065-12-5 in adjustment of that sum, vide paragraph 3 of the Order of Government, No. 219, dated 23rd February 1861. No fresh sanction of Government is necessary as the charge appertains to a period anterior to the introduction of the Budget system. Of the remaining three sums the Civil Judge should obtain the sanction of the local Government for the first two items being passed by the Civil Paymaster against the grant of 1861-62, and the last to that of 1862-63 both under F IX, as there are savings under that head in those years,
