Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd October 1863.

No. 157. Read the following letter from A. MACDONALD RITCHIE, Esq., Registrar, High Court, Madras, Original side; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 22nd October 1863.

1. With reference to the Proceedings of Government, Judicial Department, and the Order thereon of the 5th September 1863, No. 1,432, I have the honor to inform you with regard to the arrangement therein sanctioned for stabling and coach-houses for the Judges and Ministerial Officers of the High Court, that though the Court has resumed its sittings on the termination of the vacation, yet there is no proper accommodation provided for the Judges or Officers either with respect to coach-houses or stables.

2. The old stabling which formed part of the late Supreme Court have been pulled down and coach-houses partly erected on their site, but not yet completed.

3. The works in the Godown belonging to the Marine Department and which was to be converted into stables have been suddenly stopped, thus leaving the Court wholly without stabling at the most inclement season of the year.

4. I am accordingly directed by the Chief Justice to request that you will be good enough to cause such instructions to be issued as will ensure the completion of these works with the least possible delay.

No. 158. ORDER THEREON, 23rd October 1863, No. 1,680.

Communicated to the Public Works Department.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
