With reference to the correspondence in the Political Department noted in the margin, relative to the institution by one Rámakrishnaiyan of Suit No. 29 of 1856, in the late Subordinate Court at Combaconum against Mr. Cherry when Acting Collector, I have the honor to state that a charge of Rupees 7 incurred in purchasing Stamp paper for that suit remains unadjusted in the accounts since 1858.

The Civil Paymaster declines to pass the Bill for the adjustment of this sum and calls for the special sanction of Government for the same.

4. It is an arrear charge incurred previous to the introduction of the Budget system, and I beg to solicit the necessary authority regarding the same, in order that the Civil Paymaster may pass.
