Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th November 1863.

No. 38. Read the following letter from W. J. RAYNOR, Esq., Officiating Civil Paymaster; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 27th October 1863, No. 575.

General Department.

I have the honor to request that you will obtain the orders of Government on the question, whether the Order of the Government of India, No. 51, dated 14th November 1856, Financial Department, requiring Covenanted Civil Servants to continue to serve, unless disabled by sickness, for three months after return from privilege leave before they can retire from the service without prejudice to their allowances, is applicable to Judicial Officers absent from their stations during the adjournment of their Courts, and who may be desirous of retiring from the service on the close of such adjournment without resuming their duties.

2nd. Absence during adjournment having been placed upon the same footing as privilege leave, it seems to me that the rule contained in the order cited above should be made applicable to the former equally with the latter.

No. 39. ORDER THEREON, 4th November 1863, No. 1728.

The Governor in Council is of opinion that the rule referred to is not applicable to the case of Civil Servants employed in the Judicial Department, who have been absent from their stations during the adjournment of their Courts.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
