Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
11th November 1863.

No. 77. Read the following letter from THOMAS WILKINS, Esq., Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 31st October 1863, No. 110:

1. With reference to the Order of Government, dated 15th November 1862, No. 1861, sanctioning the establishment of an additional Principal Sudder Ameen's Court for one year for the decision of Appeals, the Civil Judge of Tanjore has brought to notice that, although the Appeal file has been reduced by nearly one-third, there still remain 665 Appeals, in the disposal of which no great aid can be reckoned upon from the permanent Principal Sudder Ameen, a large portion of whose time is necessarily occupied with Original Suits and Criminal cases.

2. The Civil Judge has also further represented that there is every reason to anticipate another large accumulation of Appeals, and I am therefore directed to recommend that the sanction already given may be extended to the end of the official year 1863-64, which Mr. Bird conceives is the shortest possible period within which the file can be brought down within reasonable limits. The usual Tabular Statement is enclosed.

No. 78. ORDER THEREON, 11th November 1863, No. 1755.

The Governor in Council sanctions the continuance of the Additional Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Tanjore until the end of the official year 1863-64. The Civil Paymaster will state from what source the charge on this account can be met.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
