Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 10th November 1863.

No. 129. Read the following letter from E. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, the 10th October 1863, No. 5,065 :—

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 1,671, dated 10th September 1863, I am directed to state that all Security Bonds are legally liable to Stamp Duty, whatever may be the salary of the persons who give the Bonds; that no exemption similar to that authorized in the Madras Presidency is allowed in other parts of India in favor of Officers receiving less than Rupees 100 monthly who furnish Security Bonds; and that the President in Council sees no sufficient reason for continuing the exemption in the Madras Presidency.

Copy sent to the Officiating Auditor General of India, with advertence to his letter No. 32, dated 9th May 1863.

No. 130. ORDER THEREON, 10th November 1863, No. 2,026.

Ordered to be communicated to the Board of Revenue for their information and guidance. This Order cancels the distinction drawn in the Proceedings of this Government, under date the 10th December 1862, No. 2,573, between Officers receiving higher salaries than Rupees 100 per mensem and those receiving less.
