Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th December 1863.

No. 109. To the Honorable the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 15th December 1863, No. 1946.

The Registrar of the High Court, Original side, has, apparently in conformity with the practice which obtained in the late Supreme Court, sent for publication in the Gazette a notice of the Christmas vacation referring only to those offices which are attached to the High Court in its ordinary original jurisdiction. As it is presumed that the vacation will be the same for the Appellate as for the Original side of the Court, I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to suggest for your consideration whether it would not be a course more convenient to the public and one more consonant with the status of the amalgamated Court if one notice only were published embracing the offices of the entire Court in both its branches. It might be signed by either Registrar as you may see fit.

2. I am at the same time to suggest for your consideration whether as the notice which has been issued by Government includes all Public Offices, it is necessary to issue any separate notice regarding the offices attached to the High Court.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. T. McMootry.

Notification.

Notice is hereby given that the several Offices of the High Court, in its Ordinary Original Jurisdiction, will be closed, from Thursday instant to Saturday the 2nd Proximo, both days inclusive, on account of the Christmas holidays.

By Order of the Court.
