Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 19th December 1863.

No. 169. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 15th December 1863, No. 145.

1. I am directed by the Chief Justice to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that a vacancy now exists among the Translators of the High Court; but that, as the Appellate file is at present lower than usual, the vacancy need not be immediately filled.

2. In the English Writers' Department the business has fallen considerably into arrears, owing chiefly to recent changes in the mode of recording judgments and decrees, which have been written at greater length, and in a more formal manner, since the establishment of the High Court.

3. The Chief Justice has, therefore, instructed me to ask the sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council for the temporary employment of three extra Clerks, two on Rupees (25) twenty-five each, and one on Rupees (20) twenty, per mensem, to assist in bringing up the arrears.

4. These salaries together will be merely equivalent to the salary (viz., Rupees 70) of the Translatorship now temporarily vacant; and therefore no additional charge will be incurred.

5. The Chief Justice suggests that this arrangement be sanctioned for a period of four months.

No. 170. ORDER THEREON, 19th December 1863, No. 1977.

The Honorable the Governor in Council sanctions the arrangement proposed in this letter.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
