Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 30th December 1863.

Read the following papers :—

No. 248. From W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Madras Police; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 17th July 1863, No. 1869.

General Department.

I have the honor to ask the attention of Government to the subject of the Criminal Statistics of the country, with a view to their being prepared in a uniform and systematic manner, so as to show at one view the state of crime under every head in every part of the country, and steps taken by the Police with respect to it; 2ndly, the operation of all Magistrates' Courts, whether for release, conviction, or committal of the offenders; and, 3rdly, the operation of the Higher Judicial Courts.

2. A very carefully arranged system is in operation through General Police Districts for collecting and registering information of crime, and tracing and recording each step up to final disposal. The result is concisely given in my Administration Report of this year for the entire Presidency. I forwarded a copy of the Form (No. 9) of the monthly Return received in my office from every District. A General Criminal Register is about to be opened in my office. But such Statements are incomplete, unless the Returns of the entire Presidency are manipulated in the same way. In illustration of my meaning, I may state that the Administration Report of the Madras Town Police contains only Judicial Statistics of Police Courts. There is little information of the state of crime, and the operation of the Police. A system should be devised so as to suit every part of the country.

2ndly. The Police in charge of cases before the different Magistrates, and Criminal Courts now report the result of all prosecutions up to final adjudication; and the system in operation in the General Police District provides for all these being registered in this Department. In the Magistrate makes no Official Returns to this Department, although they are most obliging in allowing comparison and correction of our Police Registers, so as to avoid discrepancy. Their Returns are made to the Supervising Court. I am therefore in a measure precluded from tabulating their operations for the use of Government and the Public. It would be necessary that Magistrates should send in Returns to the authority compiling the General Criminal Reports of the Presidency.

3rdly. The result of prosecutions before the Higher Judicial Tribunals can be obtained from the Magistrates, to whom the information is officially communicated. Returns compiled under these three heads would suffice, and might be collected and collated without troubling the Judges.

3. The collection and preparation of Criminal Statistics is an executive duty; and it appears to me that the time has come when the duty of so doing should, as in England, be put on a proper footing, and placed under the supervision of some Executive Department, which should do the duty of the Criminal Register of Great Britain.

4. It would only be necessary to decide when and by whom this duty is to be undertaken. A system may then be matured that will secure good and usefully tabulated information.

No. 249. From THOMAS WILKINS, Esq., Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate side; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 5th November 1863, No. 116.

I am directed by the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court to submit, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the accompanying tables in illustration of the Criminal Statistics during the year

No. 250. ORDER THEREON, 30th December 1863, No. 2028.

In the first of the letters above recorded, the Inspector General of Police suggests the expediency of making arrangements for the collection and preparation of the Criminal Statistics of this Presidency on a uniform and systematic plan, in supersession of the Returns now furnished separately by the High Court, the Inspector General, and the Commissioner of Police. The Governor in Council has deferred disposing of Mr. Robinson's recommendation until he could compare the Returns appended to the Inspector General's Administration Report, with those furnished by the High Court, for the year 1862. The latter were only received on the 5th ultimo, and had then to be printed.

2. On comparison of the Returns in question, it is manifest that while much work is done twice over in the two offices, neither set of Returns furnishes the whole of the information which ought to be laid before Government and the public regarding the Criminal Statistics of the year. The Returns furnished by the High Court show, in considerable detail, the number of persons sentenced throughout the Presidency to various degrees of punishment, the number acquitted and otherwise disposed of. They also show what crimes were most prevalent. But throughout these Returns the Presidency is treated as a whole; and no information is given as to the extent to which crime generally, or particular forms of crime, prevailed in particular localities, or as to the relative degrees in which crime was detected and punished in different Districts. In the Police Returns, on the other hand, the statistics of each district, as far as they are given, are given separately; but they do not show the nature of the punishments inflicted, nor the amount of work done by the several grades of Officers employed in the Administration of Criminal Justice. It is very desirable that the statistics of Criminal Justice should be prepared upon one uniform plan, and that they should contain full and clear information as to the extent to which crime in its various phases has prevailed in [illegible] of the country, and the manner in which it has been dealt with. This is a duty which, in order that it may be done satisfactorily, must be entrusted to a single Officer; and, as Mr. Robinson observes, it is an executive duty, and one which properly belongs to the Executive Department.

3. The Governor in Council accordingly directs that, in future, the preparation of the Criminal Statistics for this Presidency shall rest with the Inspector General of Police, who will prepare and submit, for the approval of Government, a set of forms in which the Returns shall in future be furnished, embodying therein the whole or greater part of the information now given in the Returns furnished separately by the High Court, the Commissioner of Town Police, and his own Office. The forms should be submitted to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court for any suggestion they may have to offer with reference to them, before they are laid before Gover[illegible]mmissioner of Police should also be consulted. When the forms have been approved by Government, it will be the duty of that Officer and of the several Magistrates in the Provinces, to furnish the Inspector General of Police with such periodical statements as he may require to enable him to prepare his Annual Returns.

4. The Returns for the year 1863 should be prepared by the Inspector General of Police, and, as far as possible, according to the new forms; and, with this view, the Honorable the Judges of the High Court will be requested to direct that the various statements relating to the year 1863, which, under the arrangements hitherto in force, would have been furnished to that Court, shall be sent to the Inspector General's Office.

5. The Inspector General's report should be submitted not later than the 15th May, and a copy should be sent to the High Court in order that any matters of interest affecting the administration of Criminal justice, which may be brought to notice in it, may be before the Court when preparing their Annual Administration Report.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
