Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 19th February 1863.

No. 146. Read the following letter from G. R. SHARPE, Esq., Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Manantoddy; to C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated Manantoddy, 31st January 1863, No. 9.

I have the honor to represent for the consideration of the High Court that the rate of batta, viz., one Anna per diem laid down in the Government Order, dated 23rd October 1862, No. 1,740, is not sufficient to cover the additional expenses incurred by my Peons when on Circuit at Manantoddy.

The price of provisions generally is high, and they are obliged to provide themselves with extra clothing.

I beg therefore to suggest that recommendation should be made to Government that the Peons of this Court, when on Circuit at Manantoddy, should be allowed batta at 1½ Annas per diem, which I observe is the rate allowed for Peons under similar circumstances at Ootacamund.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) C. F. CHAMIER,
Registrar.

7th February 1863.

Forwarded for the orders of Government.

The High Court are of opinion that the rate of batta proposed is reasonable, and should be sanctioned.

By Order,
