Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 19th February 1863.

No. 150. Read the following Telegram from Mr. WYLLIE, Deputy Secretary to Government of India; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, Madras, dated Calcutta, 18th February 1863.

Duplicate.—A Bill will be at once passed in the Council of the Governor General to provide for the business in the Master's office in the High Court being wound up, the Bill is taken from the English Accounts. Do the Governor and the High Court Judges of Madras consider that the bill should include the High Court at Madras. An immediate answer by telegraph is required. 18th-13-28.

No. 151. To the Honorable Sir C. H. SCOTLAND, Kt., Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, dated Fort Saint George, 19th February 1863, No. 264.

I am directed by His Excellency the Governor in Council to request that you will favor him with your opinion as to the expediency of including the High Court at Madras in the Bill which is about to be introduced into the Council of the Governor General, to provide for the business of the Master's office being wound up, and to which reference is made in the enclosed Telegram.

2.. It appears to His Excellency in Council that any legislation with reference to the Master's office in the High Court of this Presidency had better be deferred, until the revision of the entire Ministerial establishment of the Court, on which the Government will address you at an early date, shall have been completed, and that then the matter can be dealt with by the local legislature; but before replying to the enclosed telegram, the Government would wish to have your opinion on the subject. An early answer is requested.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
