Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
21*st February* 1863.

No. 178. Read the following letter from C. A. ROBERTS, Esq., Acting Collector of Madras; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Saidapet, 5th February 1863, No. 10.

In reply to Government Order, No. 125 of 28th ultimo, I have the honor to state for the information of Government that after obtaining from the Acting District Engineer a list of the Public buildings at Palaveram, stating how they were appropriated, of which a copy is enclosed, I proceeded personally to inspect the buildings therein stated to be unoccupied, viz., No. 3, Barracks and Hospital.

2. The Barrack in question is a Bomb-proof building built for a place of Arms, containing sundry compartments fitted with racks for Arms, and a Guard-room. This has been applied for as a School-room for the Army School at Palaveram, but, if available, is not, in my opinion, a suitable building for the Joint Magistrate's Office.

3. No. 3, Hospital, is also a Bomb-proof and is a supplemental Hospital for the Native Infantry Depôt, whenever the number of sick exceeds 56. It has not been used for the last six months, previous to which it was occupied by sick men during four months and it may again at any time be required for the same purpose.

4. Under these circumstances I have the honor to concur in Mr. Cunliffe's recommendation, that a grant of 20 Rupees monthly should be permitted for the hire of a suitable place for the Joint Magistrate's Office, now held rent-free in a ruined Bungalow which is rapidly becoming uninhabitable.

No. 179. ORDER THEREON, 21st February 1863, No. 282.

As there is no public building available for the Joint Magistrate's Office, and that in which it is now held is in a dilapidated condition, the Governor in Council authorizes the Joint Magistrate to rent a house for his office at such a sum as may be requisite not exceeding Rupees 20 per mensem.

2. The expenses will be met from savings in the present and next year's Budget.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
