Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 24th February 1863.

Read again Proceedings, 23rd January 1863, No. 98.

No. 209. Read also letter from R. R. COTTON, Esq., Civil Judge of Madura; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madura, 20th February 1863, No. 60.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government, that although by the Gazette of the 10th instant, it appears one Sadaseva Pillay has been appointed temporary Principal Sudder Ameen of Madura, no Notification regarding the establishment of a Principal Sudder Ameen's Court has yet been published, nor have I received any information whatever, on the subject of the opening of such a Court, or any instructions for forming an establishment for it.

No. 210.

ORDER THEREON, 24th February 1863, No. 299.

The Governor in Council observes that the Order of the 23rd ultimo, No. 98, relieving the Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Madura from the exercise of Magisterial powers, and reviving the Court of the Principal Sudder Ameen at that Station, was communicated to the Civil and Sessions Judge of that Zillah.

2. Ordered that the following Notification be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

NOTIFICATION.

His Excellency the Governor in Council directs it to be notified that a Principal Sudder Ameen's Court has been established at Madura under the provisions of Regulations VII & VIII of 1827.

3. The Honorable the Judges of the High Court in the Proceedings of this date, No. 298, have been requested to state what establishment will be required for the temporary Principal Sudder Ameen. He should be instructed to entertain at once such servants as may be required giving a preference to any who may have lost their situations on the abolitions of the late Subordinate Courts at Madura and Combaconum.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
