Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th February 1863.

No. 239. Read the following letter from E. C. BAYLEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, the 26th January 1863, No. 583.

Home Department.
Judicial.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your predecessor's letter No. 1,512, dated the 15th of September last, submitting with the recommendation of the Government of Madras a proposal from the High Court of that Presidency, as a part of a scheme for extending the periods of adjournment at present allowed in the case of Civil and Session Courts, Courts of Subordinate Judges, Small Cause Courts, Courts of Principal Sudder Ameens, and District Moonsiffs' Courts, that the Judicial Officers abovenamed and their establishments should forfeit their title to privilege leave under the Civil Absentee Rules.

2. In reply, I am directed by the Governor General in Council to intimate that the leave Rules of Covenanted and Uncovenanted Civil Servants are now under consideration, but that it is not expected that the present proposal can be fitted to the general Rules of the two services, and that His Excellency in Council does not consider it expedient to put the leave Rules of Officers in Judicial employ on a different footing from those of the other Officers in the services.

No. 240. ORDER THEREON, 27th February 1863, No. 322.

The foregoing letter will be communicated to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, for any suggestions they may have to offer, as to the arrangements to be made for preventing the great public inconvenience which must result from permitting Judicial Officers to take privilege leave at other times than those fixed for the periodical adjournments of the Courts.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
