H. A. BROWNE,
Magistrate.

C[illegible] Miscellaneous Case, No. 5 of 1st quarter 1863.

In the matter of Government, versus
W. H. JACKSON.

Charge—Criminal Breach of Trust.

Whereas instructions have be[illegible]ed from the Solicitor to Government to forward the prisoner W. H. Jackson to Calcutta for trial before the High Court of Judicature of Fort William in Bengal, and whereas Major A. L. Steele, late Officiating Cantonment Joint Magistrate of Rangoon, and now said to be Brigade Major at Bellary, has been named as a witness for the defence, the said Major A. L. Steele will be called upon to execute [illegible]izance conditioned in the sum of Rupees (1,000) one thousand, to be in attendance at the High Court of Judicature of Fort William in Bengal at noon on the 29th day of March 1863, to give evidence in the aforesaid case; and whereas the said Major L. Steele is not now [illegible]he jurisdiction of this Cou[illegible]

Ordered

That a copy of this proceeding with a recognizance bond be provided to the Magistrate of Bellary, who is desired to caus[illegible] duly executed by the said Major

L. Steele and then forwarded to the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal or to this Court.

(Signed) H. A. BROWNE,
Magistrate.

Forwarded to Major Steele for his information and subsequent return to this office.

(Signed) A. HATHAWAY,
Magistrate.

From Major A. L. STEELE, Major of Brigade; to A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Magistrate of Bellary, dated Bellary, 7th February 1863, No. 39.

Adverting to the accompanying letter No. 285, from the Magistrate of Rangoon, forwarded by you for my information I have the honor to request that you will cause an advance of Rupees (1,000) one thousand, to be made to me, which I calculate as the probable amount of expenses that I shall incur in travelling to Calcutta and back, of which an estimated Statement is enclosed, and of which an account of actual expenditure will be submitted on my return.

It will be observed that I have merely included travelling expenses, and Hotel Lodging expenses, omitting my own subsistence.

I should also state that as an Officer will be named to officiate for me as Major of Brigade during my absence, he will claim a moiety of the salary attached thereto, while I shall be entitled to compensation (at Rupees 90 per month) and should the Military Department decline to admit the charge, I shall claim it from the Civil Court of Rangoon.
