Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 13th March 1863.

No. 62. Read the following letter from P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 7th March 1863, No. 16.

1. I have the honor to forward copy of letter from Major F. Young, Military Joint Magistrate of Wellington, dated 25th ultimo, No. 25, requesting that he be vested with Magisterial powers under Act IV of 1847, and also appointed a Justice of the Peace.

2. I believe that in his present appointment as Cantonment Joint Magistrate, Major Young is to have jurisdiction under Regulation VII of 1832, and I have already reported to Government in my letter of the 25th February 1863, No. 13, that his jurisdiction may be restricted to the Military limits, and that arrangements for the trial of parties in Coonoor and other places committing offences beyond the jurisdiction of a 2nd Class Sub-Magistrate, can be made in connection with the Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund. Under these circumstances I do not think it necessary that Major Young should be vested with Magisterial powers under Act IV of 1847. I would however recommend that he be appointed a Justice of the Peace, and a Commission issued to him from the Crown Office to enable him to dispose of cases brought against Europeans within the Cantonment.

3. Adverting to Major Young's 4th paragraph, I am not aware of any civil public building at Wellington available for his office. I presume that as a Military Cantonment Joint Magistrate he should be provided with accommodation and furniture by the Military Department.

From Major F. YOUNG, Joint Magistrate of Wellington; to P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore, dated Wellington, 25th February 1863, No. 25.

I have the honor to report that I arrived here on the 21st instant, and that I was sworn in on the 23rd instant as Military Joint Magistrate of Wellington in conformity with G. O. G, Nos. 24 and 25 of 1863.

2. With reference to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 172 of the 17th January 1863, paragraph 3, may I beg that you will kindly take steps to my being vested with Magisterial power under Act IV of 1847, and also appointed a Justice of the Peace.

3. I have the honor further to bring to your notice that the Magistrate's Office at Wellington has hitherto been held in the Commissariat Office owing to that functionary being vested with Magisterial powers. Now, however, there is no public building at Wellington available, as will be seen from the enclosed copy of a letter from the Officer Commanding the Station.

4. I find too that there is only furniture as per margin belonging to the Magistrate's Office. I have consequently to solicit your assistance towards procuring me the required supply of furniture and an office in an eligible position for the performance of the double duties of Military Joint Magistrate and Justice of the Peace.

1 Wooden Chest, large, with key.
1 Do. do. small do.
1 Writing table.
2 Chairs.

5. In the absence of Captain Hawkes, I am at present carrying on the duties of Military Joint Magistrate in the Commissariat Office.
