Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 19*th March* 1863.

No. 114. Read the following letter from A. P. SHREENIVASSA, Officiating Principal Sudder Ameen of Tinnevelly; to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated Tinnevelly, 23rd February 1863, No. 81.

1. In returning my pay bill for January last, the Officiating Civil Paymaster having retrenched a moiety of my salary as Officiating Principal Sudder Ameen, and requested me to send a separate Bill for the moiety so disallowed supported by an order of Government permitting me to draw full pay, I have the honor to request that the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court of Judicature will be good enough to represent my case to the Government and procure the necessary order.

2. I beg to observe that had I been appointed to act as a Principal Sudder Ameen in consequence of the absence of a permanent incumbent on leave, then of course it will be but just that any arrangement made for filling up such temporary vacancy should not entail additional expense on the State. But in the present instance the establishment of an additional Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Tanjore having become necessary, it is clear that the Government should bear all the consequent expenses, and that I should not forfeit a portion of the pay attached to the office in which I have been appointed to officiate in consequence of Kristnasawmy Iyer having been ordered to preside over the new Court at Tanjore.

3. A copy of the Officiating Civil Paymaster's Memorandum is herein enclosed.

MEMORANDUM.

Moiety of pay of Mr. A. P. Shreenivassa, Officiating Principal Sudder Ameen of Tinnevelly, from 5th January last, disallowed, to be drawn on a separate bill supported with a copy of Government Order allowing him to draw full pay.

CIVIL PAYMASTER'S OFFICE,
FORT SAINT GEORGE,
10*th February* 1863.

(Signed) H. A. MANGLES,
Officiating Civil Paymaster.

(True Copies.)

(Signed) C. F. CHAMIER,
Registrar.

The position of Mr. Shreenivassa at Tinnevelly being similar to that in which he was placed at Salem, the High Court recommend that he be allowed the full salary of the office during the employment of Kristnasawmy Iyer as additional Principal Sudder Ameen of Tanjore.

(By order of the Court.)
