PROCEEDINGS OF GOVERNMENT.

Amund

It appears to me that the sooner we explain to these people that all subjects are equal in the eye of the law the better. I think the Govt. has behaved foolishly in excluding so many & would rather suggest to him through the Gov. for the propriety of reducing any the number, than increase our own.
 His Excellency Sir William Denison K.C.B.

Governor of Council of Fort Saint George

The Memorial of Umde Rajah Raja Kumara Venkataswami Raja Bahadur, Ruler of Carvetnagar in the District of North Arcot.

Respectfully sheweth

That your Memorialist feeling deeply disappointed and mortified at the result of his application made through the Collector and Magistrate of North Arcot to be exempted from personal appearance in Court in order to give evidence in civil suits through a was supported by the recommendations of that officer who thereby admits that your Memorialist is entitled to the privilege of Exemption.

2. Your Excellency in Council is aware that the very extensive power given to the Civil Courts of enforcing the personal attendance of parties to a suit by Acts II and III of 1855 has been much abused and that the law causes great dissatisfaction among the upper classes of natives. The new Code of Civil Procedure, Act No. VIII of 1859, remedies the evil by giving the Executive Government the power of exempting such persons as they think proper from personal attendance in Courts; and the Bengal Government in accordance with such

3. The privilege of exemption from personal attendance in the Civil Courts has of the North Western Provinces to several persons of note and rank under the discretion vested in him by section 22 of the code; and your Memorialist begs to annex for the information of Your Excellency in Council a list of the persons persons so exempted in order that if necessary reference may be made to the Government of North Western Provinces to ascertain whether the exemption your Memorialist claims has been allowed to persons of corresponding rank with himself.

4. Your Memorialist submits for the consideration of your Excellency in Council that he is a descendant of Bomraunge family, one of the renowned western Zamindaries, whose

Memorialist cannot therefore but regret the disgrace of being compelled to attend in Court on the summons of every officer exercising civil jurisdiction especially where so much consideration has been shown to ordinary Sunndee Rajahs in Bengal who have been exempted from such attendance attendance.

5. Your Memorialist further submits that his standing and position in rank are insufficient to warrant his being considered whom is a mere proprietor of land and by courtesy called Rajah and the latter a pensioner of Government.

6. Your Memorialist respectfully submits that the Council will take into consideration all the foregoing circumstances and be pleased on a previous thing to reconsider the order passed on the application submitted on his behalf by the Collector and Magistrate of North Arcot and submit to the Council.

in Council will be fit on the ground that advanced to exercise the discretion vested in your Excellency by section 22 of the code by drafting your Memorialist from personal appearance in any of the Civil Courts of the District.
