Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th March 1863.

No. 182. Read the following Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, dated 9th March 1863, No. 34.

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 27th ultimo, No. 322, communicating for the information of the High Court copy of a letter from the Government of India to the effect that His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council does not consider it expedient to place the leave Rules of Officers in Judicial employ on a different footing from those of the other Officers in the service ; and inquiring what arrangements can be made for preventing the great public inconveni ence which must result from permitting Judicial Officers to take privilege leave at other times than those fixed for the periodical adjournment of the Courts.

1. The Chief Justice and Judges think that, under the arrangements proposed in paragraph 5 of their letter dated the 30th August 1862, the public inconvenience apprehended by Government cannot arise. Judicial Officers will hereafter be entitled to privilege leave only if they remain at their Stations during the recess, and few or none will do so in future. It is also to be observed that under Section XII of the Absentee Rules, the Government may refuse an application for privilege leave in any case in which the granting of it would occasion inconvenience.

2. The Chief Justice and Judges will now issue an order to the lower Courts, extending the period of the adjournment, and intimating that no application for privilege leave will hereafter be supported by the High Court, unless they are fully satisfied that no public inconvenience will be occasioned by the grant of such leave.
