I have the honor to report that owing to a clerical error in the account particulars of fees collected in the Royapettah Police Court for Summonses and Subpœnas during the month of February 1862, the sum of thirty Rupees and twelve Annas was over-remitted by the Magistrate, and was paid into the Bank by me in the month of April last.

2. This error was only lately discovered on again examining the account preparatory to the drawing up of the Annual Return, and I request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the re-payment to me of the sum in question by the Bank in order that I may remit it to the Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court.
