to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated Bellary, 25th March 1863, No. 60.

I have the honor to call your attention to my predecessor's letter dated 17th ultimo, No. 30, submitting the case of the Superintendent of Convict labor at this station, and to solicit that you will have the goodness to obtain the orders of Government on the subject as early as practicable.

2. The man's case is one of peculiar hardship, as, though employed under the sanction of Government, dated 12th October, No. 1,389 of 1859, no orders as to the source from which he is to draw his salary, (which it was promised should be issued, vide Order of Government, 7th of June, No. 722 of 1860) have as yet been promulgated, and 12 months have elapsed since he has received any remuneration for his services.
