The increases proposed by the Judges amount to Rupees 90, and consist in raising the salaries of three of the servants on their Establishment, viz:—
The salary of the Assistant Clerk and Cashier to be raised from Rs. 200 to Rs. 250.....50
The Accountant on Rupees 50, to be keeper of the Records and Deposits on Rs. 70.....20
The Deputy Record-keeper on Rupees 45 to be Examiner on Rupees 65.....20

Rs...90

Streenevassiah, the Registrar of the old Court of Commissioners for the recovery of small debts, filled the appointment of Assistant Clerk and Cashier of the present Small Cause Court up to December last, when he was pensioned. He drew, besides his salary of Rupees 200, a personal allowance of Rupees 150 a month, or Rupees 350 in all. The present incumbent receives only Rupees 200. The Judges consider this amount as an insufficient remuneration for the responsible duties devolving on the Assistant Clerk and Cashier of their Court. He stands in charge during the absence of the Chief Clerk of the Court, and as Cashier (for which duty he has deposited Rupees 6,000 as security) all the monetary transactions pass through his hands. The great increase in the business of the Court is illustrated by a comparative statement, here annexed.
