Referring to Clause X, paragraph 3 of your letter of the 30th December last, No. 1,477G, I am directed to state that no saving was effected by the abolition of the Subordinate Court of Madura, the salary of the Judge and the cost of his establishment having been taken in part of the expense of establishing Courts of Small Causes in the Provinces, as shown in the Tabular Statement appended to my predecessor's letter of the 10th March 1862, No. 399, addressed to the Home Department, a copy of which is enclosed for reference.

No. 12 in the Statement of charges for August 1862.

2. I am to add that sanction is not now required for the Writer and the Gomastah added to the establishment of the Zillah Court of Madura, as these servants have been retransferred to the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court, which it has been found necessary to revive at that station. A full report regarding the establishment of this Court will be submitted separately.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
