Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 19th January 1863.

No. 79. Read the following letter from Major W. H. WAPSHARE, Joint Magistrate and Justice of the Peace; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 22nd December 1862, No. 165.

Accompanying I have the honor to hand Bills for expenses incurred and money paid by me on account of the prosecution at this place of W. R. Willans at the suit of the Crown, and beg you will be good enough to obtain the necessary orders of Government to enable me to adjust the account.

2. It will be observed that the expenses of the witness A. J. Palman are rather more than would be now necessary. But, at the time of his attending, the charge for a through passage from Madras to this was Rupees 50, and the Firm in whose employ he was, requested no time may be lost as his services were emergently required in Madras.

No. 80. ORDER THEREON, 19th January 1863, No. 63.

His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the expense, Rupees (100) one hundred incurred by Mr. Palman for the journey to Ootacamund and back, to give evidence before the Joint Magistrate's Court at that Station.

2. The charge for conveying and escorting the prisoner Willans to the Presidency for trial, amounting to Rupees 41-11-6, will be passed by the Civil Paymaster.

3. The Bill for these charges being debitable partly to Police, will be forwarded to the Magistrate of Coimbatore for adjustment in communication with the Superintendent of Police. The Joint Magistrate of Ootacamund will in future forward the Bills for similar expenses incurred in connection with his Court to the Magistrate of District, and leave it to that Officer to take the necessary steps for their adjustment, audit and sanction.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
