The Court decided th

At the first hearing of the special case I satisfied the Court that the Receivers' possession was the possession of Government, and that the possession vested in Government by an act of State. The Court therefore declined further to entertain the case, unless the Secretary of State should elect to submit to the jurisdiction of the Court. This, Government will remember, I advised should be done; provided always, however, and only in case that, the Court should be satisfied that the Gardens claimed were private property, which I was satisfied the Court never could hold—the facts, in my opinion, showing them clearly to have been always, and always treated as Circar or State property.

13. Of this opinion was the Court, which accordingly gave Judgment for the defendants. The Carnatic Receiver may therefore now sell the property without any further delay.

I trust that these results will appear satisfactory to His Excellency.
