Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 5th May 1863.

No. 28. Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Acting Joint Magistrate of Malabar; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Tellicherry, 25th March 1863, No. 35.

I have the honor to report for the information of Government that one Kothana Ram Patter, who was brought up before the Sub-Magistrate of Cherrakel charged with a violent assault on his wife and two other persons, was acquitted by me because it appeared clear that both at the time when the assault was committed and when the Sub-Magistrate was inquiring into the case he was out of his mind. He seems now however to be in his right senses. I beg therefore to recommend that as his father has offered to give security that he shall be properly taken care of, and shall not do harm to any body or to himself, an order be passed by Government under Section 297 of Criminal Procedure Code empowering me to deliver him over to his friends. The man is a Combaconum Brahmin, and is going back to Tanjore in a month or two.

No. 29. ORDER THEREON, 5th May 1863, No. 691.

The Joint Magistrate of Malabar is authorized to deliver the prisoner, Kothana Ram Patter, to his father on the latter giving security as required by Section 297 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

2. The removal of the Lunatic to Tanjore should be intimated to the Magistrate of that District, and the security renewed by that Officer if necessary.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
