No. 11. Read the following letter from J. W. CHERRY, Esq., Civil Judge of Salem; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Salem, 11th December 1862, No. 13.

With reference to an Order contained in the Government Proceedings of the 1st October 1862, No. 1,617, authorizing the disposal of the Judicial buildings at this station, I have the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council that I have not as yet been able to carry out the said Order in consequence of a greater portion of the said buildings being still occupied by the Survey Office, and which office, as I officially learn from the Deputy Superintendent will remain at Salem for another year.

2. I request therefore the orders of Government to postpone the sale of the said buildings until they are actually vacated.

No. 12. ORDER THEREON, 5th January 1863, No. 6.

Under the arrangements approved in Proceedings 26th April last, No. 663, two of the old Judicial buildings at Salem are to be sold, with a moderate extent of ground attached, for private houses, while the rest of the land is to be put up to auction in suitable allotments, after the buildings thereon have been sold for what the materials will fetch. The Civil Judge now brings to notice that the house occupied by the Survey Department will probably be required for another year. He therefore requests permission to postpone the sale of the buildings until they are vacated.

2. The Government do not clearly understand whether Mr. Cherry wishes to let the whole arrangement remain in abeyance, or merely to defer the sale of the buildings actually under occupation. Nor are they told whether the house so occupied is one of the two designed for private residences, or one that is to be sold for the value of the materials.

3. In any case, however, they desire that the general arrangements sanctioned should be carried into effect without delay. The sale of the premises required for the Survey Office may be postponed, but all other buildings, and all the unoccupied ground should at once be disposed of.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

Order thereon - 5th January 1863 No 6.

Under the arrangements

& approved in Ord: 26th April last, No 668, two of the old Judicial buildings at Salem are to be sold, with a moderate ~~suitable~~ extent of ground attached, for private houses, while the rest of the land is to be put up to auction in suitable allotments, after the buildings thereon have been sold for what the materials will fetch. The Civil Judge now brings to notice that the house occupied by the Survey Department will probably be required for another year. He therefore requests permission to postpone the sale of the buildings until they are ~~actually~~ vacated.

2. The Govt do not clearly understand whether Mr. Cherry wishes to let the whole arrangement remain in abeyance, or whether merely to defer the sale of the buildings actually under occupation. You are duly told whether the house to occupied is one of the two designed for private residences, or one that is to be sold for the value of the materials.

3 In any case, however, they desire that the general arrangement sanctioned should be carried into effect without delay. The sale of the premises required by the Survey Office may be postponed, but all other buildings, and all the unoccupied ground should at once be disposed of.
