Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 10*th June* 1863.

No. 86. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel H. COLBECK, Senior Magistrate of Police; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 28th May 1863, No. 20.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of the Government that the tank in the compound of the Royapet Police Court has been for a great length of time totally neglected in consequence of which it was perfectly dry except during the rains.

2. I have, however, just had it put into perfect order deepening it sixteen clear feet, turfing and sloping the banks.

3. From the deepening several springs of clear and excellent water have been obtained.

4. Being the only tank on the premises it is a great convenience to the people, and I trust that the Government will permit me to send in a Contingent Bill for the cost of repairs.

5. The tank is one hundred and twenty-eight feet long by eighty-eight feet broad.

6. The work just executed upon it has been performed by Contract under my own daily supervision at a cost of Rupees one hundred and ten which I consider very reasonable.

No. 87. ORDER THEREON, 10th June 1863, No. 901.

The Governor in Council is not prepared to sanction the charge referred to in the foregoing letter, for which he observes the sanction of Government should have been applied before it was incurred.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
