Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd January 1863.

No. 117. Read the following letter from C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 13th January 1863, No. 8.

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Order of Government dated the 23rd December 1862, I am directed to state that the Chief Justice and Judges see no necessity for issuing any circular instructions to the Courts respecting the course to be persued in cases where process has to be served in another jurisdiction, because the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure are plain and specific on the subject. They think it will be sufficient, in forwarding the papers in question to the Civil Judge, to draw his attention to those provisions of the Code and this will be done.

No. 118. ORDER THEREON, 22nd January 1863, No. 93.

To be recorded.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
