Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

19th June 1863.

No. 200. Proceedings of Government, dated 19th June 1863, No. 966.

In the letter addressed to the Chief Justice and Sir Adam Bittleston under date the 5th August last, No. 1,244, a copy of which was sent to the Judges of the late Sudder Court, the attention of the Judges was requested to a Despatch from the Secretary of State, dated the 30th June 1862, regarding the revision of the present forms of annual returns for exhibiting the result of the administration of Civil and Criminal Justice which would become necessary on the establishment of the High Court and the coming into almost general operation of the Codes of Civil and Criminal Procedure.

2. No report having been received on this subject from the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, the Governor in Council resolves to request that they will be good enough to inform him what steps have been taken in the matter, and to submit as soon as they conveniently can, a set of revised forms embodying such alterations as they may deem necessary.

3. The Administration Report for 1862-63 should embrace the operations of the Original as well as the Appellate side of the High Court. It is accordingly returned in order that the necessary additions may be made to it.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
