Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th April 1863.

No. 29. Read the following letter from J. L. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Deputy Auditor and Accountant General; to the [illegible] Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 26th March 1863

Budget and Finance Department.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government in the Judicial Department, No. 423, dated the 18th instant, I have the honor to state that the difference of rent between Rupees 260 and Rupees 200 of the "Ameer Bagh" (occupied by the Appellate branch of the High Court) for the current, payable in next month may be passed against the sum of Rupees 3,919 shown in Statement A, which accompanied my letter* to Government, dated the 3rd instant, No. 416, as the balance of savings available under F III, Law and Justice.

* R[illegible] of Government in the Judicial Department, No. 303, dated 7th March 1863.

2. In regard to the rent for April 1863, and subsequent months which will form a charge of the ensuing official year, the Honorable Judges of the High Court should be requested to state whether the increase for the whole year being only Rupees 720 cannot be met from expected savings in their Budget Estimates for that year, consequent upon the amalgamation of the Ministerial Establishments of the late Supreme and Sudder Courts.

No. 30. ORDER THEREON, 8th April 1863, No. 523.

Communicated to the Honorable the Judges of the High Court and to the Civil Paymaster.

2. For the present, the increase to the rent of the "Ameer Bagh" from 1st instant, and the rent of the old Bank premises engaged for the Town Police Court, at the rate of Rupees 250 a month, which will be payable from 1st May 1863, will be defrayed from the provision on account of rent for the Appellate branch of the High Court, included in the Estimate for 1863-64.
