No. 112. Read the following letter from Colonel G. W. Y. SIMPSON, Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 17th June 1864, No. 40.

Adverting to the Proceedings of Government, No. 418, dated 23rd March 1864, I have the honor to state that the Magistrates of the Districts enumerated in the margin, have returned into Ordnance Stores the arms, &c., which were in their charge.

Cuddapah.	Kurnool.
Malabar.	Vizagapatam.
Bellary.	Godavery District.
South Canara.	Tinnevelly.
Tanjore.	Coimbatore.
Trichinopoly.	North Arcot.
Kistna District.	Madura.

2. These arms, which are mostly unserviceable and of obsolete patterns, are being broken up, and the materials brought to account.

No. 113. ORDER THEREON, 8th July 1864, No. 1026.

It appears from the foregoing letter that the arms, &c., in charge of the Magistrates, which have ceased to be used since the establishment of the present Police, have been returned into Ordnance Stores in all the Districts, excepting Salem, and the four Districts, Ganjam, Madras, Nellore, and South Arcot, from which, on the date of the Order of the 23rd March last, No. 418, reports on the subject had not been submitted to the Government.

2. Since that date the Magistrates of Ganjam and Madras have reported that the arms, &c., in their charge were returned respectively to the Arsenal at Vizagapatam and the Principal Commissary of Ordnance, and the Magistrate of South Arcot has been directed to destroy the arms, &c., in his charge and dispose of the old metal. The Magistrate of Nellore has still to submit his report on the subject. The Governor in Council directs that Mr. Dyke's attention be called to the last paragraph of the Order of the 23rd March last, No. 418.
