Judicial.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters marginally noted, and in reply to request that of the prisoners named in the second communication, John Freeman, Robert West, William Hawkins, William Vickery, and Thomas King, five in all, may be transferred from the Ootacamund Jail, under the enclosed licenses, to Port Blair.

No. 343, dated 4th March 1863.
,, 1624, ,, 8th October 1863.

2. William de Noual Ramus, if he has completed not less than two years of his term of sentence and not more than three, may likewise be transferred to Port Blair: but in order to the issue of a license in his favor, information is required as to the date on which sentence was passed on him by General Court Martial and the place where the Court was held. On this information being supplied the necessary letter of license will be forwarded to you.

No. 186. ORDER THEREON, 15th July 1864, No. 1072.

The Sessions Judge of Ootacamund will immediately forward the five prisoners mentioned in the above letter under suitable escort to Madras for embarkation in the Arracan. The Commissioner of Police will receive the men on their arrival and, in communication with the Master Attendant, will arrange for their shipment and deliver the licenses (which will be sent to him for the purpose) to them on board the vessel, carefully explaining the conditions of the licenses and the penalties for breach of their conditions under Section 12, Act XXIV of 1855.

2. The Inspector General of Jails will furnish the required information regarding William de Noual Ramus.
