CHEPAUK,
7th July 1864.

No. 211. ORDER THEREON, 20th July 1864, No. 1090.

The requisitions for the erection of new offices for Sub-Magistrates, of Subsidiary Jails, and Station houses, and for the extension of existing buildings for these purposes are so numerous; while the means of complying with these requisitions are so limited that the Governor in Council resolves to request that each Magistrate will submit a list of the buildings which must be constructed or materially improved, with a rough estimate of the cost and explanation of the necessity.

2. The works which must be undertaken within the current year will be distinguished in the list from those which may be postponed till next year.
