Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
26th July 1864.

No. 292. Read the following letter from G. S. FORBES, Esq., Magistrate of Ganjam; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Chetterpore, 8th July 1864, No. 116.

One Bába Miah, a Mussulman of Berhampore, held a license last year for the sale of arms and ammunition.

2. At the request of the Superintendent of Police (who has assigned his reasons) I have declined to renew the license this year, and would now request the instructions of Government as to the disposal of the stock in trade remaining on this merchant's hands, and valued at Rupees 428.

3. Probably the best course would be to make it over to some other licensed vendor.

No. 293. ORDER THEREON, 26th July 1864, No. 1135.

The Magistrate of Ganjam is informed that as arms and ammunition cannot be sold except under protection of a license, the stock in trade of a person whose license is revoked or has expired, can only be disposed of through the agency of a licensed dealer.
