Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
13th August 1864.

No. 79. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Civil Paymaster, Fort Saint George; to the Secretary to Government, Madras, Judicial Department, dated 30th July 1864, No. 80.

I have the honor, with reference to the accompanying copy of Supreme Government letter No. 1367, dated 14th instant, to request that I may be informed whether the officer holding the appointments of Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor is in any official order or document stated to be paid his salary, on the understanding that his whole time is to be devoted to the duties of his office.

2. This Department has on record nothing to show on what terms the officer in question is appointed, but I presume that there is no such stipulation, as otherwise Mr. Mayne would not have been continued Secretary to Government in the Legislative Department.

From J. E. COOKE, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India; to the Civil Paymaster, Fort Saint George, dated Simla, 14th July 1864, No. 1367.

Financial Department.

With reference to your letter, No. 36, dated 10th June 1864, I am directed to request that you will state the full salary attached to each of the offices of Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor, and whether the permanent incumbent is allowed to pursue other avocations in addition to the duties of those offices; in other words, whether the salaries were fixed, or not, on the understanding that he should give his whole time to his official duties.

(True Copy.)
(Signed) W. DONALD,
Chief Assistant to Civil Paymaster.

No. 80. ORDER THEREON, 13th August 1864, No. 1218.

Ordered that the Civil Paymaster be informed that the salary fixed for the Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor was not intended as a remuneration for the whole of his time.
