No. 114. From H. M. DURAND, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; to the Resident at Hyderabad, dated Simla, 22nd July 1864, No. 184.

Foreign Department.
Judicial.

In reply to your letter, dated 29th ultimo, No. 22, I am directed to refer you to my two letters of the dates and numbers noted in the margin, and to state that the course suggested by you is substantially that which has been taken by the Governor General in Council.

Letter dated 4th July, No. 581.
Do. " 580.

2. His Excellency in Council thinks it very doubtful on the language of the Acts of Parliament, whether a Justice of the Peace on the Madras Commission can commit to Bombay. You are, however, authorized to try the experiment if you think proper; but the course indicated in my first quoted letter (provided the assent of the Nizam can be obtained) seems to be the safest.

3. His Excellency in Council approves of your proposal that the Officers named in the margin as well as yourself should hold a Commission of the Peace from Madras. An application will accordingly be made to the Madras Government to obtain a Commission of the Peace from the High Court of that Presidency in favor of yourself and the other officers. You should inform the Madras Government direct what are the full christian and surnames of these officers.

Captain J. G. Bell, Lieutenant R. Bullock.
Captain J. T. Bushby.
