Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd August 1864.

No. 140. Read the following letter from R. DAVIDSON, Esq., Acting Civil Judge of Nundial; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, Madras, dated Kurnool, 10th August 1864, No. 7.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, dated 7th May 1864, No. 653, I have the honor to enclose translation of a Miscellaneous petition, No. 185 of 1863, presented by one Naganna, son of Kattireddy Gitta Sanjivareddy of Oukchennampally in Koilguntla Taluq, establishing his right to the unclaimed property of the deceased Achamally, No. 69, included in the list of unclaimed property for the year 1862; and to request permission from Government to restore the personal estate of the said Achamally, which was ordered to be disposed of by Government in the said Proceedings, and the house, with an upper story and a compound, belonging to the same Achamally, which were authorized to be dealt with as an escheat under Section 6, Regulation VII of 1817.

Translation of Miscellaneous Petition, No. 185, presented by Naganna son of Kattireddy, Gitta Sanjivareddy of Oukchennampally, Taluq Koilguntla.

Mundamopy Achamma, widow of Nattireddy Gurappa, died about 10 months ago, and her property consisting of a house, bell-metal plate, a brass vessel, and a necklace consisting of five gold beads, six corals and other beads, was sent up to Court as unclaimed. The said house had passed into the possession of the said Naganna by the decree passed in O. S., No. 449 of 1859, on the file of the Nossam Moonsiff's Court, and the said Achamma was simply allowed to live in the said house and possessed no title to it. The husband of the said Achamma and the petitioner's father were brothers. Petitioner is therefore her lawful heir under the Hindu law, inasmuch as she left no other heirs. Petitioner, therefore, prays that the Court will examine the marginally noted witnesses regarding his heirship to the deceased, and direct the award of the said house and the other moveables to the petitioner.

A. Venkata, B. Naganna of Oukchennampally, Taluq Koilguntla.
