Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
21st September 1864.

No. 156. Read the following letter from F. S. CHILD, Esq., Session Judge of Cuddapah; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Cuddapah, 6th September 1864, No. 448.

I have had many complaints that when a Jury is on a trial and therefore is not allowed communication with their friends, they are much inconvenienced by the difficulty of procuring refreshment when required. This was brought prominently forward both last month and in July, when there were trials in which the number of prisoners and witnesses were so great that the trials lasted over the one day, and the Jury were, of course, compelled to remain at the Court during the night. The only method I had to meet the difficulty was in procuring a Brahmin to cook for them, and as I can neither tell exactly on what day he may be required, nor if I did would be able to get his services for that day alone, I have engaged a man at 10 Rupees a month, which was the cheapest I could do it at. I have therefore the honor to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will sanction the expense.

No. 157. ORDER THEREON, 21st September 1864, No. 1389.

The Governor in Council declines to sanction the employment by the Session Judge of Cuddapah of a Brahmin for attendance as cook on the Jury. No similar charge is allowed in any other Court.
