Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd September 1864.

No. 162. Read the following letter from A. W. PHILLIPS, Esq., Civil and Sessions Judge of Chingleput; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Chingleput, 14th September 1864, No. 134.

In consequence of the Translatorship of my Court becoming vacant, and in the absence of any one who had passed the requisite examination, I appointed, on 10th August, one Soobramania Iyah, the Criminal Javabneviss, to officiate, and he has been doing the duty to my entire satisfaction up to this date; but the Civil Paymaster having returned the Indent unaudited with regard to this officer, on the grounds of his not having passed the required examination, he can draw no pay at all.

2. I have therefore the honor to request that you will kindly lay the case, as a special one, before His Excellency the Governor in Council, and get such order passed as will prevent the poor man incurring, for no fault of his, so severe a loss. As soon as I can find a passed candidate he will, of course, be appointed.

No. 163. ORDER THEREON, 22nd September 1864, No. 1392.

The Civil and Sessions Judge of Chingleput is informed that under standing orders the audit offices cannot recognize the appointment of unqualified persons. He should, therefore, have applied for special authority for even temporarily promoting the Criminal Javabneviss of his Court. Under the circumstances explained, the Government will not object to the salary of the office being passed to the acting Translator till the end of December next; but they must insist on a passed candidate being then appointed.
