Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th September 1864.

No. 199. Read the following letter from W. ELLIOT, Esq., Sessions Judge of Guntoor; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Guntoor, 17th September 1864; No. 108.

In conformity with the instructions contained in the Proceedings of Government, dated 17th May last, No. 64, I have the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council that the Medical Officer in charge of the Jail Hospital, has given it as his opinion, that the insane person Nalam Ramisetti therein referred to is harmless, and might be set at large if any of his relatives were to "take but a little care of him." The Acting Joint Magistrate, however, on being requested to inquire whether any of Ramisetti's relatives would agree to take charge of him, stated that they had already been applied to, and declined to do so. From personal observation, I consider Ramisetti, of himself, comparatively harmless; but having witnessed some of his antics in the hospital, when forgetful of my presence, and having been informed by the Jailor that his conduct is not regular, that he is "troublesome" and annoys the other invalids by stealing their firewood, fouling the water and breaking their chatties, crying out that they are beating him, &c., I think it not improbable that on returning to his village, as no one is willing to protect him and do not seem anxious for his freedom, he may be made the sport of some of the juvenile inhabitants, from which evil might possibly arise, and I hold it therefore advisable to order the detention of the said Ramisetti under Medical observation for a further period of six months in the Jail Hospital at Guntoor.

No. 200. ORDER THEREON, 27th September 1864, No. 1412.

The Governor in Council authorises the detention of the lunatic, Nalam Ramisetti, for a further period of six months.
