Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
28th September 1864.

No. 212. Read the following Telegram from the Magistrate of the Godavery District; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 24th September 1864.

There are European witnesses here of second and third Class to be sent to Madras in a case lately committed for trial before the High Court of Judicature at next Sessions. A third Class lad to-day demands board and lodging money as his means are exhausted. How much may I allow him, and how much to second Class men? All will be sent to Madras by Steamer leaving 20th October. The lad can be boarded and lodged for eight Annas a day, not less. 24th—16-40.

No. 213. ORDER THEREON, 28th September 1864, No. 1420.

Resolved that the Magistrate of the Godavery District be informed that the Rules of the 7th September 1863 provide for the grant of compensation to witnesses coming from the Mofussil in cases committed to the High Court for trial, only from the date of their quitting the out-station for Madras, and not for any time prior to their departure. Cases like that referred to in his telegram must, therefore, be dealt with under the rule in Chapter VII of the Civil Auditor's Manual, paragraph 254, Clause 1, which authorizes the Magistrates of Districts to grant a reasonable subsistence to indigent prosecutors and witnesses.
