Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
8th October 1864.

No. 56. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 28th May 1864, No. 757.

It being impossible for the Sessions Judge of Chingleput to exercise proper control over the prisoners and establishment at Guindy, I am desirous that some other officer resident at that place should be put in charge of the Jail. It will, in my opinion, be desirable that the officer, under whose directions the prisoners are employed, should have the charge.

No. 57. ORDER THEREON, 8th October 1864, No. 1468.

The Government having, in their Proceedings of the 5th instant, No. 1458, resolved on transferring the charge of Jails to the Magistrates and their subordinates, the Magistrate of the Madras District will take charge of the Guindy Jail under the terms of the order.
