Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th October 1864.

Read the following papers:—

No. 62. From R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Civil Paymaster, Fort. Saint George; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 22nd June 1864, No. 50.

I have the honor, with reference to Government Order, No. 1698, dated 15th October 1862; to inquire whether the provisions of the later Order, No. 130, dated 23rd February last, may not be held to supersede the former.

2. There seems no advantage gained by having charges for Jail manufactures submitted in a bill each month apart from the regular Jail Contingent bill.

3. Both bills are countersigned by the same officer, the Inspector General of Jails, and come into this office about the same time, so that there would seem to be nothing to prevent the charges of both bills being drawn in the same document.

4. I was not aware of G. O. No. 1698, and therefore requested Mr. Rohde to act in accordance with the new system, and include the charges referred to in the general Jail Contingent bill; but that officer has called my attention to the previous Orders of Government, and although I think the G. O. No. 130 sets the other aside, I consider it right to make the present inquiry before moving further in the matter.

Referred to the Inspector General of Jails for his remarks.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,

Chief Secretary.

26th September 1864.

No. 63. From J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 28th September 1864, No. 190.

In acknowledging your endorsement of the 26th instant, on the Civil Paymaster's letter of the 22nd, proposing that one bill be submitted for manufacturing and contingent expenses of the Jails, I have the honor to state that I should wish matters to remain as at present, until some final arrangement for the charge of Jails is made. The office establishments of the Jails are not now effective, nor is the supervision generally such as would ensure accuracy in the accounts. With officers whose primary duty is the charge of Jails with an office charged with the accounts I may hope to avoid the complication and confusion which occurred when one Contingent bill both for ordinary expense and manufactures was allowed.

No. 64. ORDER THEREON, 8th October 1864, No. 1472.

The Governor in Council authorizes the continuance of the present system of preparing separate bills for the manufacturing and ordinary contingent expenditure incurred in Jails, until further orders.
