Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

26th October 1864.

No. 202. Read the following letter from J. W. CHERRY, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Salem; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Salem, 6th October 1864, No. 16.

Adverting to the Orders of Government, 30th July 1864, No. 1156, I have the honor to send a list No. 1 of the furniture now in use, and list No. 2 of the additional furniture required for the Civil and Sessions Court of Salem.

2. The old furniture is almost on its last legs, and certainly not in keeping with the handsome new Court the Government built here three years ago.

3. The present appearance of the Court is one that is most destitute, and as Barristers and Pleaders of the High Court are now constantly in attendance here, it is very desirable that they should see something more respectable than a Judge sitting at a common table, with perhaps only a peon's lantern in the evening.

4. I cannot understand why the High Court have, in paragraph 3, excluded Salem from the Courts requiring additional peons, in consequence of the work here being comparatively trifling.

5. As it is notorious this is one of the hardest worked Courts in the Presidency, I beg that it may also receive the increase proposed for the other Courts.
