the following papers:—

No. From N. PALIOLOGUS, Esq., Solicitor, Calcutta; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated Calcutta, 1st October 1864.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter, No. 1014, to my address, dated 8th July last. I have communicated its contents to my clients, who instruct me to say that Mr. Gubbins repeatedly assured them that the Notes would be called in by the Madras Government and restored to them, or new Notes granted in their stead, if after due proclamation the same were not delivered up.

2. I have the honor to ask on their behalf, whether the Government of Madras entertains any doubt as to their right to the Notes; and if not, whether the Government would be pleased to state on what points proof is required to satisfy the Government of the claim preferred being a just one. My clients, I beg to state, are respectable persons well known in Benares; and while they are willing and anxious to do all that may be required of them, they earnestly solicit that they may not be subjected to unnecessary expense and delay. Mr. Gubbins, I am informed, made every inquiry into the rights of these parties and satisfied himself that they were justly entitled to the Notes in question. If further proof is required, and you will be pleased to indicate on what points, my clients will do their best to comply with your directions; but they feel it will be a great hardship on them, and one entailing great expense, if they are required to proceed by regular suit in Madras and to retain Attornies and Counsel there.

3. They are prepared to give security to the Government in case the Notes are given up to them or renewed in their favor, and hold the Government harmless and indemnified against the claims of any one else who may prefer a claim for the same. This is the usual practice at the Treasury here after due proclamation.

Forwarded to the Government Solicitor for submission to the Advocate General, with reference to G. O., 8th July last, No. 1013.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

3. I now forward a copy of his further Opinion, and return the Order above noted.
